Now that the flowers of psychedelia are in bloom once more, it's becoming possible to weed out its greater exponents from its lesser ones. While a spectrum of bands from R.E.M. to Echo and the Bunnymen may be considered to fall within the acid-folk-rock revivalist boundaries, the real core of the movement is a handful of Los Angeles-based groups. Among them, Green On Red have one of the strongest combinations of integrity and individualism.
